

Wybe Minnebo

Javascriptguy, interactiondinges

One foot in usability, the other in programming.

Likes to fall out of line, listens to his gut a lot.

Not ashamed to nerd out.

Loves to fall in love with his work.

- I combine user-centred design with full-stack programming
- Strong communication skills in both Dutch and English

Curriculum

2014 - current Interaction designer, developer

Liones B.V., Rijswijk

Involved with FontoXML as a startup product and Fonto's co-development with launching customers and clients in tech, educative publishing, regulatory and aerospace. My job is to apply Fonto's amazing tech to the specific goals and needs of an author, corporation and their industry, so that subject matter experts can contribute structured documents to publications and knowledge bases.

- Usability research, interaction design and JS development for the Fonto product.
- Research and development of specialized add-on capabilities to Fonto.
- Training third party developers in programming for Fonto.
- Information analysis, schema design, and smart interfaces for authoring instances.
